

Your Post-COVID Admission Experience: The Truth About The College Search

Wednesday, April 21, 2021 at 6 pm ET and

Thursday, April 22, 2021 at 8 pm ET

The college search and application experience is an opportunity that should be EMPOWERING, NOT OVERWHELMING. In this engaging and interactive conversation, authors of "The Truth about College Admission: A Family Guide to Getting In and Staying Together", Brennan Barnard and Rick Clark, will discuss the current landscape of admission, changes on the horizon, and what you need to know in order to have a thoughtful, meaningful experience.

► To sign up please click here
revolutionprep.com/webinars/your-post-covid-admission-experience-the-truth-about-the-college-search/

Meet your speakers

Rick Clark

Rick Clark (ATLANTA, GA) is the Director of Undergraduate Admission at the Georgia Institute of Technology.

Brennan Barnard

Brennan Barnard (HOPKINTON, NH) is the Director of College Counseling at the Derryfield School. He also serves as the College Admission Program Advisor for the Harvard Graduate School of Education's Making Caring Common project. Brennan has written about college admission for Forbes, the New York Times, Washington Post, HuffPost, Concord Monitor and Journal of College Admission.

For 19 years, Revolution Prep's professional tutors have been mentoring one million (and counting) students, helping them become the bright and ambitious learners they are.

Experience in live online learning

Online instruction delivered

100 academic & test prep subjects across all programs